

We enforced a regex to the password field which only accepts a password which is 6 characters long and has at least one number and one special character for registering as a new user. It will only register a new user when it meets valid character requirements for a new password.

